

Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

MOYER'S PRIZE

The finest Apple of recent introduction. The original tree has been a yearly cropper for the last 35 years. Tree a good grower; fruit medium to large; yellow skin with blush on sunny side. Flesh crisp, white, juicy, melting, very fine and highly aromatic. Late keeper. Will keep till May. Introduced by the Laketon Nurseries.

